Thankegiving Day in Washington.

We are glad to see that this custom, which originated with the Puritans of New England, but which is now kept up by all the loyal States, is to be onforced here. At the last meeting of the city government the following resolution passed both Boards:

Whereas it is becomine in a Christian people to return thanks to the Giver of all Good for the manifold blessings He vouchsafes to us as a community; and whereas it is peculiarly appropriate that the city of Washington should unite with her sister cities in the observance of a day of public thanksgiving and praise; be it therefore Resolved, dc. That his honor the Mayor be hereby requested to set spart, by public preclamation, Thursday, 27th November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty Ged for the mercies of the past year, and of prayor for the restoration of peace and of fraternal feeling throughout the Union, invoking all citizens to abstain from their usual secular employments and to invite a proper observance of the day.

The Mayor will doubtless appoint the above day for that purpose, and we hope to see a general observance of it.

Capture of a Secosh Spy.

Wm. 2. Stone, of Washington, who has a brother in this city and a father in Georgetown, was captured by some of our leren in front and paroled as a prisoner of war, with instructions to report himself to the Provest Marshal in this city, within ten days. Instead of obeying orders the fellow went prowling around the country in Maryland, near our camps, but avoiding the guard. He was rearrested by Leut. Hand, of Scott's 260, near Rockville, Md., and sent in charge of a guard to this city. He claims to be a member of the Seventh Vignita cavairy, and says be emisted at Newbown, Shenandoan country, a little above Winchester. He is believed to be a spy, but unless he has more brains than his personal appearance indicatos, he has chosen the wrong profession.

Memoval of the Medical Director's Office The calice of the Madical Director, which has horstofore been located in the third story of the building occupied by the military gover-nor and provest marshal, will be removed to-day to a building owned by Commodore For-rest, and used as a towarding house by Dr. Porrost, and used as a hearding house by Dr. Por-ter, at No. 13 Fennsylvania averance, between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets. This move is a good one, as it locates that very important office on the lower floor, and in a place con-venient of access, so that the large number of convalencent and crippled soldiers who daily throug this office will not be put to the painful task of climbing long flights of stairs.

Literary Association The venerable Edward Everett Literary Association has been reorganized under a different name, and upon a somewhat different ba-ont name, and upon a somewast discreti sis.

From the high literary standard formerly held by this association, the ability and zeal of its members, and the interest manifested in the new organization, we may predict low it a suc-cessful career in the future. Its officers are President, M. J. Farrell, Vice President, Jan. C. Clephane; Secretary, S. S. Brooks; Treasu-rer, Thos. M. Shepherd.
It meets every Monday evening, corner of Thirteenth and H streets, when visitors are always welcome.

The way Liquer is Sunggied.
Yesterday forenoon a large Government wagon, in charge of a Dutch wagonmaster, was seen to pass to the rear of a large liquor store on Pennsylvania avenue, and there halt. An examination of the vehicle revealed the fact that it was loaded with small shelter tents. But it was doomed to bear, in addition, another kind of freight. The rear of the liquer store was opened, a large barrel rolled out, the tents removed, and the barrel deposited in the centre of the lead. The tents were again piled into the wagon, and the innecent-looking load passed on its way through the guards to camp, there to regale the nostrils and fill the stomachs of some guzzling officers and men.
